

Ann-Marie Anderson, Esq.
Arizona Forensics for Foundations and Remediation Association (AFRFA)

Ann-Marie is a member of AFRFA's 3-member governing Executive Committee. She is an attorney with 25+ years practice experience, including as the longtime General Counsel to structural engineering/architecture/forensics corporation Felten Group, Inc. She has served as a law firm partner (Holm Wright Hyde & Hays, PLC), as an attorney with the international AmLaw 100 firm Squire Patton Boggs, LLP, as Assistant Attorney General and as General Counsel/Executive Vice-President for publicly traded and privately held corporations in industries such as engineering, technology and hybrid automotive. Her practice experience includes complex litigation (including, construction), regulatory and transactions and she has served as lead named counsel in litigation before the United States Court of Appeals for the 9th Circuit. She also has substantial national leadership experience, serving on and/or as Chairman of multiple boards of directors including, the State Bar of Arizona, University of Michigan Law School, University of Michigan Alumni Association, Phi Beta Kappa Academic Society, Albion College National Alumni Association, AFRFA, Phoenix Opera, the Big 10 Athletic Conference and others. She speaks regularly at law and industry conferences and has appeared in business and legal publications, including the Wall Street Journal, Crain's Business, Yahoo! Finance, Businessweek, Detroit News and others. She holds the world's highest rating for legal ability and ethics (Martindale AV Preeminent®) and her lawyer peers have honored her with 2 State Bar of Arizona "Outstanding Leadership" awards and named her to "America's Top 100 High Stakes Litigators"®, "America's Top 7-Figure Litigators"®, Arizona's "Leading Administrative & Regulatory Attorney"®, "Best Lawyers in Arizona"® (in multiple practice areas), "Who's Who in America"®, the "American Trial Academy"®, "The Premier Career Achievement Award"® and others. Ann-Marie also co-founded an international sports, business and alumni consulting corporation, Arena Advisors International, headquartered in Phoenix, Arizona and New York City (www.arenaadvisorsinternational.com). She is a former NCAA collegiate tennis player, 3x State Singles Champion and teaching professional who still plays competitively. She graduated from the University of Michigan Law School (as did her father and sister) and Albion College (Phi Beta Kappa, Magna Cum Laude).